Runaway Bunny! Register for the Family Adventure Walk

WAUKESHA, WI: The City of Waukesha Parks, Recreation & Forestry Department (WPRF) announces registration for the Runaway Bunny Family Adventure Walk is now open. The walk will take place on Sat., April 9 in Frame Park. The walk is part of the Building Brighter Futures campaign and is a fundraiser for the Waukesha, Parks, Recreation & Forestry Financial Assistance Fund.

The 1.7-mile Adventure Walk will feature activity stations around the Frame Park trail, including:

- reading the Runaway Bunny book and exploring the dream through activities (copy provided to every family)
- completing a “tally the dream” challenge to receive a sweet treat
- petting a rabbit at the petting station
- participating in boat races (take home boat)
- designing your own bunny ears
- exploring trees
- participating in a gone fishing activity
- challenging yourself on the rock climbing wall
- creating a make and take flowerpot
- participating in circus fun
- taking a photo with the Easter Bunny
- and more.

“This event is a fun way to celebrate Spring while helping others as the proceed from this event will support the WPRF Financial Assistance Fund that enables accessibility and affordability for all.” said Recreation Services Manager, Mary Berg.

Pre-registration is required, $40 per family/group of five or $20 per individual (includes all activities). For more information, or to register for the walk visit Bright Future - Runaway Bunny Family Adventure Walk \(waukesha-wi.gov\).

The WPRF Financial Assistance fund is available to residents of Waukesha and helps hundreds of families/individuals remain safe and engaged through programs like swimming lessons and after-school programming.
